Creative Sparks : Using art to think differently about work

Creative Sparks : Using art to think differently about work

- ◆ This is a portfolio of my Artist In Residence work. It's been designed to show some of the ways I use creative practice with clients, and to give you a feel for the possibilities we can achieve together. Enjoy looking at the work, and please get in touch to discuss your needs. I'd love to hear from you.

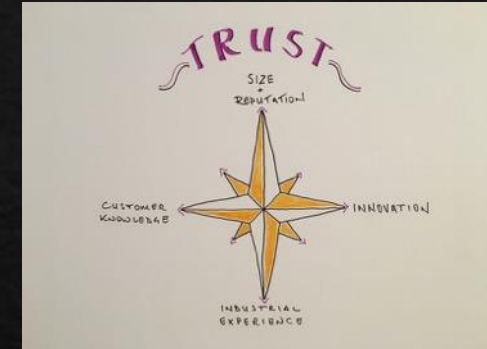

Physical Graffiti : Participative, Inclusive

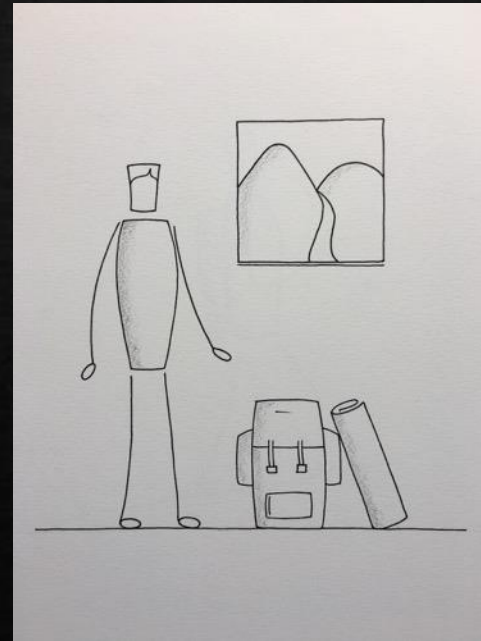

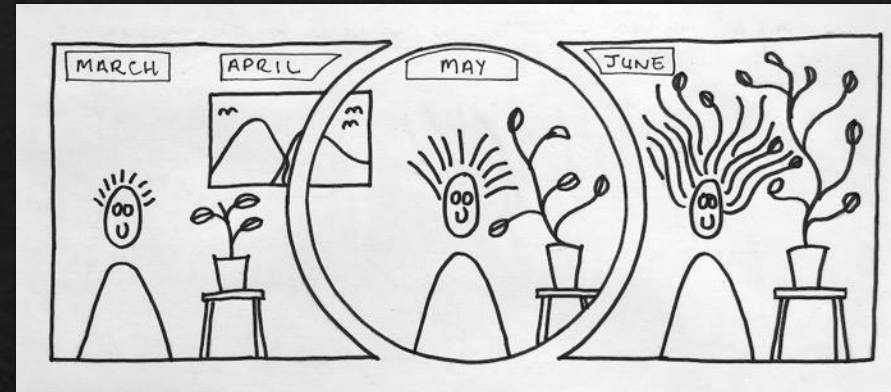

Live Painting : Spontaneous Abstract Reactions

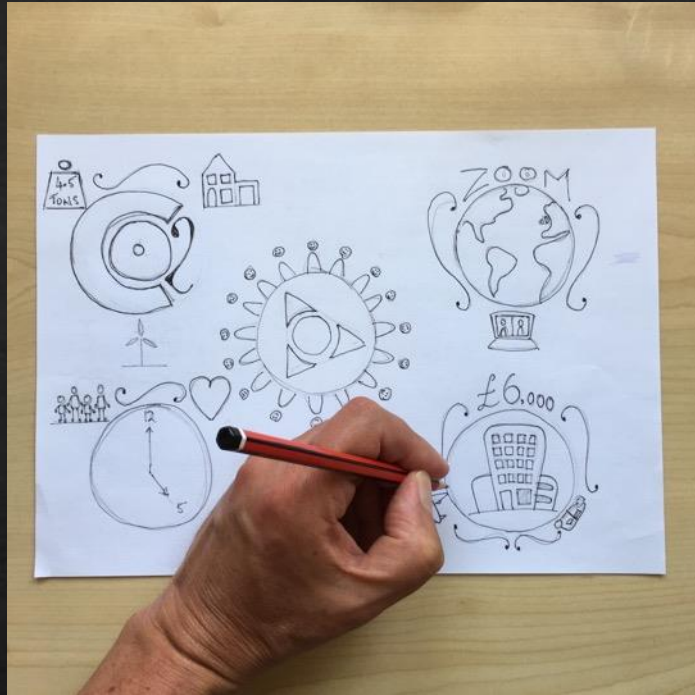

Words and Pictures : Listening and Reflecting Themes

Story Telling Using Cartoons

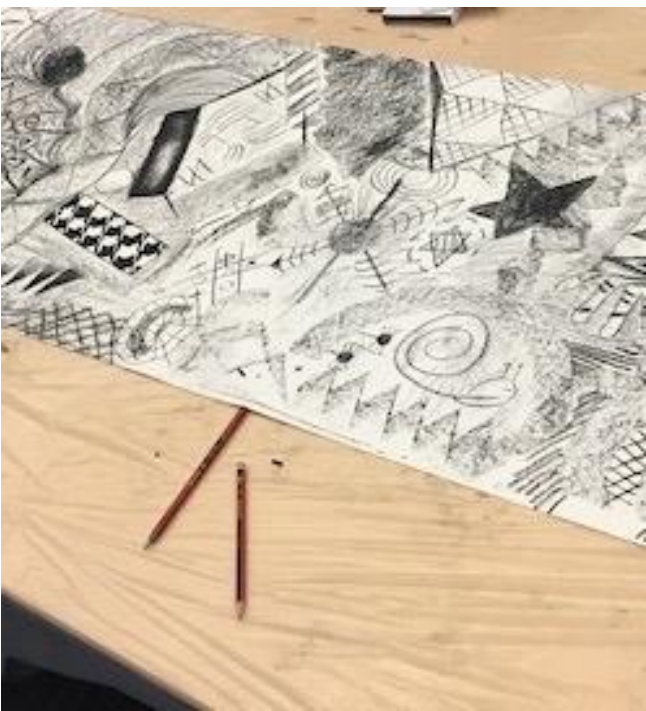

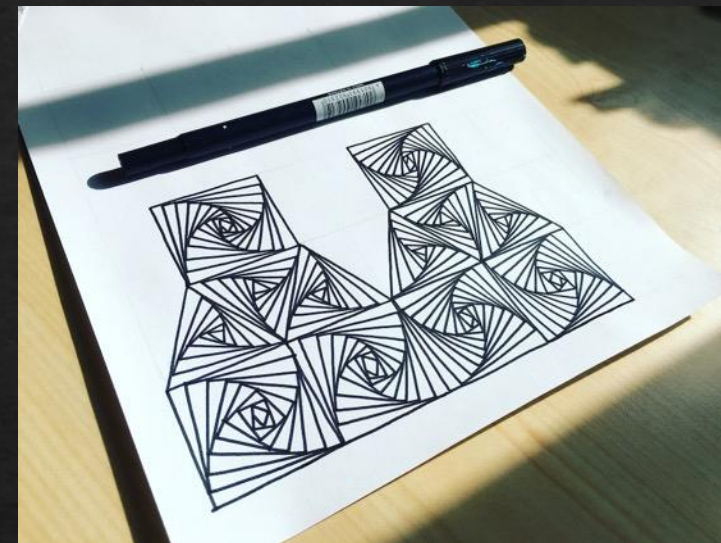

Story Boarding

From initial conversation, through preliminary shared doodling, to cocreated artefact.

How Does What
You Hear, Make
You Feel? :
Participative,
Inclusive.

Art as Meditative Practice

Simple exercises – structured and random, made together and separately.

Visual Minutes : Session by Session

Art for Work's Sake:
Be Curious
Start Something
Keep Going
